Embrace your inner outlaw.

Ovation of the Seas™
Kochi is a small and friendly city located on the southern coast of the island of Shikoku. Known as the city of Kings of Ryukyu, Kochi boasts the second oldest castle in Japan and is home not only to the Kochi Aquarium, but also to Busan Tower, rising 387 feet above sea level for incredible views of the city and its surrounding areas. Experience the beautiful Haundae Beach for its therapeutic hot springs and mineral baths.

BEIJING (TIANJIN†), CHINA
Tianjin is China’s largest municipality-level city after Shanghai and Beijing. Tianjin has much to offer: an eclectic stock of colonial-era, European-style buildings, excellent examples of classical architecture, a dynamic culture featuring delicious seafood-based cuisine and enough historical sites that illuminates the city’s past, present and future.

OKINAWA (NAHA†), JAPAN
Naha is the largest city in the Okinawa prefecture. Places of interest include Shuri Castle which houses the ruins of the Esakalyu’s Temple, Tama-ku and the tombs of Kings of Ryukyu. Fresh seafood, cool sea breeze and long stretch of beaches await her visitors. There is also great handicraft shopping in traditional village-style shopping streets.

SEUL (INCHEON†), SOUTH KOREA
With a population of over 10 million, Seoul is the world’s second largest metropolis. This bustling and competitive city is surrounded by mountains, features towering skyscrapers and is populated with boulevards of fancy stores and narrow alleys of tiny shops.

SINGAPORE
Filled with glittering skyscrapers, Singapore practically hums with business and trade. You’ll also find multi-ethnic culture, great cuisine and attractions that include modern malls, traditional shops, colonial buildings and historic temples.

MIYAZAKI (ABURATI†), JAPAN
Located on the southeast coast of the island of Kyushu, Miyazaki Prefecture is a quiet and relaxing destination. It boasts the second warmest temperatures in Japan (after Okinawa), and it is the ideal place to get off the beaten track, go swimming in the Pacific Ocean and taste the local seafood delicacies. The capital of Miyazaki Prefecture is the city of Miyazaki, a bright and sunny city with a southern resort atmosphere.
